

Dear EAGT members,
Spring starts to feel in the air and the emerging of new energy and presence is everywhere. We are very happy about the new style of our Newsletter and we hope that these changes are moving in the direction that you like. This newsletter is peculiar for many reasons, one of them is that some people in the Executive committee will finish their journey within EAGT in their roles, some new will come in and for sure uniqueness is that in this Newsletter we will share once more our excitement for the upcoming conference in Taormina 2016 before this fantastic event with around 1000 gestalt therapists and practitioners will happen. For sure, this conference will be amazing! Except reports from the committees and officers in this Newsletter, you will enjoy reading an interview to two new members done by Astrid Dusendschön, but also Creative zone with our contributors Magda Pantelidu and Joanna Kato on the Lesvos Appeal. Besides this, you will be able to read more about Babel project in Greece. The “Babel project” offers support to the workers and volunteers of a mental health center for migrants in Athens, Greece, which is a very important project of the HR&SR committee. Moreover, you will have interesting topic in our Pill section as well as reports from countries.

Again, we like to invite all of you to join us and contribute with your creativity and energy to our Newsletter team. You are all welcome! These remarkable changes of the design and content of the Newsletter will not be possible without these awesome people: Antonia, Astrid, Ilona, Jan, Jelena, Jojo, Marga, Michele and Olaf.

Wishing you a great summer, love and embracement of presence wherever you are!

See you in Taormina!

*Jelena Zeleskov Djorić
& Michele Cannavò*
